"Miscellanies," ee. BELIEF. So many things are (conceived as necessary) to be known and believed, as are necessary should be ever preached to a barbarous and heathen nation, and is necessary in (order to their conversion to Christianity), whether there be one thing, or two, or three, or more.