Moses and the prophets never pretended to work miracles by themselves, on their own power or authority; and because Moses and Aaron once did, they were deprived of the sight of Canaan.